

What is the new shipping requirement?

All vendors shipping CA→NV and/or NY/NJ→OH will now ship small parcel (UPS or FedEx) for any shipment under 425 pounds and 20 cartons (previously 125 pounds and 14 cartons), any shipment totaling more than 425 pounds or 20 cartons will need be routed for LTL pick up.

Who does this impact?

Only vendors shipping from California to Nevada and/or New York/New Jersey to Ohio.

What if I am not shipping from California, New York or New Jersey?

You will continue to ship your Purchase Orders as normal – small parcel (UPS or FedEx) for any shipment under 125 pounds and 14 cartons, routed for LTL pick up for anything over 125 pounds or 14 cartons.

Does this change impact California vendors shipping to Ohio?

No, California to Ohio will continue to ship small parcel for anything under 125 pounds and 14 cartons and LTL for anything above 125 pounds or 14 cartons.

Does this change impact NY/NJ vendors shipping to Nevada?

No, NY/NJ to Nevada will continue to ship small parcel for anything under 125 pounds and 14 cartons and LTL for anything above 125 pounds or 14 cartons.

What if I am shipping more than one Purchase Order to a specific zulily fulfillment center and it exceeds the weight and carton counts for UPS or FedEx?

Combining Purchase Orders to make one shipment that is above our UPS/FedEx requirements should be routed for LTL pick up.

Does this change allow me additional time to ship?

No, you are still required to ship within your designated PO-to-Ship window for your PO(s) so that we meet our customer promised shipping dates.
